Any proposed changes to the study must be submitted to the REB for approval prior to implementation. A renewal report must be submitted next year prior to the expiry of this approval if your study still requires ethics approval. If you do not renew on or before the renewal expiry date, you will have to re-submit an ethics application.

Approval by the REB does not constitute authorization to initiate the conduct of this research. The Principal Investigator is responsible for ensuring required approvals from other involved organizations (e.g., University of Lethbridge, community organizations, school boards) are obtained, before the research begins.

Sincerely,

Stanley Varnhagen, PhD
Associate Chair, Research Ethics Board 2
